Historical Subjects On Golden Jubilees

Four postage stamps are being issued this year to commemorate the jubilee of the Commonwealth of Australia.

Four postage stamps are being issued this year to commemorate the jubilee of the Commonwealth of Australia.

White settlement came to Australia at points on the continent separated by vast distances, and, as a result, six independent States grew up with many common interests but with no effective means of joint consultation. Realizing that the development and security of the new continent depended on the adoption of a common national policy, men of vision began a movement for federation and, in consequence, the Commonwealth of Australia came into being in 1901.

The fifty years that followed have been a period of outstanding development, and it is with pride that the Postal Administration will issue a set of four stamps to celebrate the jubilee of Australian nationhood. The set comprises a distinctive pair of the 3d. denomination and 5½d, and 1/6d. values each with a separate design.

The constitution of the Commonwealth provided that a national capital should be built. The site selected was Canberra, and, in 1927, the seat of government was moved to the new city. The facade of the Parliament House at Canberra forms the subject of the design of the 1/6d. stamp which is printed in cedar brown and is horizontal in format.

Vermont Congressman Makes Sale Of Stamps Official Business; Suggest Kefauver Committee Investigate

The continuing deficits of the Post Office Department has again resulted in a plea from the higher-ups in that Government Department that only by charging higher fees (for the present inadequate service) can the Department begin to make both ends meet. Opponents of the theory that higher rates are the answer have often pointed to the fact that the Post Office Department is not run as a business institution, so that to talk of balancing income against expenditures is pure nonsense. The thousand and one ways in which the Department throws away money, all in more or less "legitimate" fashion should indicate that there is no reason why the ordinary user of the mails should be taxed via postal fees to support so-called "postal activity" that has nothing to do with carrying the mails.

support so-called "postal activity" that has nothing to do wit rying the mails.

One of the greatest actual losses to the Department comes through their having to carry the letters of Congressmen free of postage. If the Representative from Pumpkin Corners wants to flood his constituents with mail opposing the new look, there is nothing to stop him from so doing, all at public expense. In the past year, in the election campaign it came out that one Congressman (and there are 435 of them) used "free postage" to the extent of over $85,000 in the course of a twelve months period. This was of course charged to the Post Office Department—and the taxpayers foot the bill.

gressman (and there are 435 of them) used "free postage" to the extent of over $85,000 in the course of a twelve months period. This was of course charged to the Post Office Department—and the taxpayers foot the bill.

We have often wondered whether there was any regulation that would prevent a Congressman from using the mails to further his own business. We don't know whether or not this would be legal, but the solution may be closer at hand than we realize. A Vermont Congressman, Mr. Charles A. Plumley, of 12 Prospect Street, Northfield, Vermont has recently circularized stamp dealers with a mimeographed form, signed by him listing philatelic material that he has for sale, Are they bargains? In the mimeographed circular he comes right out and says that he "will sell for cash", "above catalog, never below" and that the items "are tops, and I ask a top price for them."

The circular is forwarded under Congressman Plumley" of the contral part of the design has been respected by a flat to the point of saled lines in the border have been reduced from 69 in the old to 53 in the new.

The thin sky shading lines of the old designs have been resplaced by a flat to the point of 1952, the Department of 1952, the Department of Posts and Telegraphs of the Union of South Africa will issue a set of four commemorative study and the union of South Africa will issue a set of four commemorative study and the union of South Africa will issue a set of four commemorative study and the union of South Africa will issue a set of four commemorative study and the union of South Africa will issue a set of four commemorative study at set of four commemorative study is a set of four commemorative study and the union of South Africa will issue a set of four commemorative study and the union of South Africa will issue a set of four commemorative study and the union of South Africa will seue a set of four commemorative study and the union of South Africa will issue a set of four commemorative study and the union of South Africa will seue

The circular is forwarded under Congressman Plumley's Congressional frank, without payment of postage, and the outer cover bears the customary printed notice, "CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES, HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, OFFICIAL BUSINESS, FREE."

To our way of thinking, this is one of the most flagrant abuses of the Congressional frank, and if its use for the sale of philatelic materials for the personal aggrandizement of a Member of Congress is legal, then the law regarding Congressional franking needs revision. (If this is "OFFI-CIAL, BUSINESS" God help America. ED.)

The stamp dealer who supplies

The stamp dealer who supplies us with this information, and who has let us see the mimeographed circular does not wish his name used, for very obvious reasons, and he has carefully cut his name from the outer envelope. We have however read the lope. We have however read the mimeographed circular, and studied the outer envelope, so we can testify to the truth of these statements.

THOMAS ALVA EDISON Inventor

Born in Milan, Ohio, 1847—died 1931. What to tell you, in a few short words, about the greatest inventive genius that ever lived, is a bit difficult, and likely to be just a repetition of what nearly ever man and women and shild ever man and woman and child in America already knows. He started "in business" at age in Amèrica already knows.

He started "in business" at age 12, selling newspapers and magazines and probably ham sandwiches for 5 cents on the Grand Trunk trains running into Detroit. He saved his stationmaster's child's life, and was rewarded with a free course in telegraphy, after which he became an operator in the U. S. and Canada.

He invented and sold the first of his telegraphic inventions before age 25, and established his first workshop at Newark, N. J. Sometime later he moved it to Menlo Park, N. J. where he produced the greatest of all his inventions—the blessed incandescent electric bulb, which has given the world light in the darkest corners, and given it safely and inexpensively.

During his lifetime, Edison was granted more than 1200 U. S. patents, covering, among of the rethings, a vote recorder, automatic telegraph repeater, quadruplex telegraph, printing telegraph, electric pen, mimeograph, carbon telephone transmitter, the microphone, phonograph, the electric valve, kinetoscope, alkaline storage battery, and hundreds more. He built his final workshop in West Orange, N. J. and established his permanent home in North Orange, N. J.

Helicopter, Peace Altar Stamps Issued

April 11-12 saw the release of two new Italian commemoratives according to P. Ostrow, Elizabeth, N. J. On April 11, the Italian Republic marked the dedication of the Ara Pacis at Redipuglia Medea by issuing a single stamp. The following day, it placed on sale two commemoratives to mark the 29th Milan Fair and the International Helicopter Show which was held at Milan concurrently with the Fair.

The single stamp is a 20-lire violet, showing the magnificent Ara Pacis, or Altar of Peace, which will be dedicated at Redipuglia Medea on May 6. This building will overlook an area bitterly fought over during World War 1.

It will house a thousand urns containing a bit of earth from each of Italy's war cemeteries, together with a memorial list bearing the names of war dead, Italian and foreign alike, who lie by its dear the state of the

The Milan Fair set really commemorates two events rather than one. The lower value, a 20-lire brown, commemorates an International Helicopter Show. It is a large stamp, about the size of the recently-issued Tuscan commemoratives.

The vignette shows a helicopter poised above the "Leonardo da Vinci" helicopter port. Although not an airmail stamp, this item will be sought after by all airmail specialists.

The high value is a 55-lire blue, for foreign mail. It is the size of a special delivery stamp, but vertical in format. It celebrates the Milan Fair itself. The vignette shows the Pavilion of the Ministry of Telecommunications at the Fair surmounted in the back-Fair, surmounted in the back-ground by the famous "Madon-nina" of the Duomo di Milano. All three of the stamps describ-ed above will be valid for postal use through December 31, 1951.

One Cause For Postal Deficit

The Congress of the United States and the Post Office Department are invited to read our lead story this week and learn one cause of the huge Postal Deficit that faces the Department. Just how many times this matter might be multiplied in other ways than as an embroyo stamp dealer we do not know, but if Congressmen are using this same plan to peddle Butter and Eggs from the home farm or to help sell the output of their stores and factories all over the United States, then it is high time to look into matters.

When the Kefauver Committee gets back in action this case would be one well within their realm of observation and investigation. vestigation.

If things of this nature are to be permitted every Congressman's wife should soon have a mink coat and the thing might soon get so common in Washington that a decent scrub woman would shudder at sight of them.

Suggests Plan For Official Stamps

As a plan that might help in putting the P.O.D. Deficit where it belongs and an easy means of keeping the account, Mr. S. L. Chisholm of San Diego, Calif., suggests that all Departmental and Government Agency free mail as well as the mail of Congressmen be franked with postage stamps and that in order that the cost of producing these stamps might be kept at a minimum that the same method as used to make Bureau Precancels, be used for producing the various necessary Departmental stamps. Print them on the presses at Washington and issue to the various deaprtments and agencies on requisition and charge them up to the various departments.

This is a sound practical method that could be put into opera-

This is a sound practical method that could be put into operation at no great cost to the department and would place the deficit for handling all of the free mail in its proper place. This deficit could then be deducted from P. O. D. Operating expense and covered in the annual appropriation bill.

More Sign For Hawaiian Trip

In addition to those who plan to go to Hawaii for the HAPEX in June as announced in our issue of April 2, we now have a further list of collectors who announce their intention of making the trip. This list is supplied by the Kelso Travel Bureau who have booked many of the trips by boat or air. It is not yet too late to make your reservations if you address the Kelso Travel Bureau at Green and Euclid Streets, Pasadena 1, California.

Following are planning to go by boat Mrs. Grace Ballenger, Inglewood, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Fosdyke, Los Angeles; Dr. and Mrs. Monroe F. Loy, and Dr. and Mrs. Ervin E. Nickols, both couples from San Marino, Calif.; Dr. and Mrs. Roland H. Osborne, and Dr. and Mrs. F. George ReBell of Los Angeles, also Mrs. Fred H. The list thus far includes quite a few names and we are intrigued.

Know Your Stamps

The greatest thrills in stamp collecting come to those who know their stamps and knowing them means a complete realization of their rarity and value. The catalogue is filled with stamps priced at prices that the real collector who knows value would gladly pay for the stamps in question if he could find them. There are many stamps in the catalogue priced at a few cents for which certain collectors who have tried to find such stamps for months or years would gladly pay double, triple or quadruple the price quoted if the stamps could be found. Some collectors hold the mistaken idea that inasmuch as the catalogue is printed by a big stamp dealing firm that they can buy the various stamps at prices in the catalogue from this firm if wanted, but this type of collector is forever hunting for the stamp at a discount from the catalogue. Fact of the matter is that any real specialist in any certain group of stamps can point out to you many stamps he would gladly buy at several times the price printed in the catalogue. He knows that there is no chance getting them from the publishers so he continues to search for them. Many of these stamps are very low in catalogue price. It is not necessary to list a lot of such stamps to make this point so you can believe it. If you have any doubt about these facts, just write several dealers and try to buy a copy of France No. 155, which is listed at 25c unused and 10c used. It is a terribly hard stamp to find and if you want one, gladly pay full catalog if it is ever offered to you.

But now for another real example of rarity. Prices on stamps are everned to a great extent by the number for collectors who are The greatest thrills in stamp collecting come to those who know one, gladly pay full catalog if it is ever offered to you.

But now for another real example of rarity. Prices on stamps are governed to a great extent by the number for collectors who are interested in any particular stamp, or group of stamps. The Cape of Good Hope triangle stamps like other triangle stamps are only triangles, yet they were the first, there were several different issues of them and they are among the early classic issues, thus they have a tremendous following and as a result really fine copies of these bring a far greater price than many other stamps triangle or otherwise that are much more rare. wise that are much more rare.

I have a good story illustrating this point and want to tell it more fully as soon as I can prepare the story and get the pictures made that I want to show, and I am going to show you another triangle stamp that is far more rare on cover than either the 4 penny or the I penny Cape Wood Block, yet it sells at auction when offered, which is very rarely, at a fraction of what one of the aforementioned Capes would bring. The reason for this is as explained above, so to get bargains, you have got to know your stamps and take advantage of your knowledge in building your collection.

It is a great thrill to pick up a real bargain and those thrills come to the collector who knows his stamps. At some future date when his collection is sold, these rarities will stand out for what they are and will fetch top prices.

The Wolves of Bari

by Pierson Ostrow

A collector with an inquiring turn of mind can get more learning with less cost from his Italian collection than from almost any other group of stamps. Classical history, modern history, the arts, the aspirations of mankind—all are spread to view on the album pages of an Italian collection. Let us take as an example two stamps that sell for about two cents each—Scott's #439-40, better known as the "Wolves of Bari."

These crude pieces of postal paper began to filter into this country with our merchant seamen and soldiers at the time of the campaign in Italy in 1944-45, selling, initially, for as much as fifty cents apiece. They are clearly but simply lithographed and perforated 11½.

One stamp has no watermark at all. The other is watermarked with a device never before—or since—seen on an Italian stamp. The design motif is the ancient one of Romus and Remulus, founders of Rome, suckling a wolf. Today, these stamps are common enough, though still a wee bit difficult to pick up used. But what is their background?

woil. Today, these stamps are common enough, though still a wee bit difficult to pick up used. But what is their background? When Marshall Badoglio engineered his Palace Revolution against Mussolini, and so enabled the rebellious Italian people to put a formal end to Italian resistance to the invading allies, one of the natural things to do was to issue a stamp or stamps to concretize the shift of power. The Allied Military Government sanctioned the issue, since it was essential to restore the shattered postal system of Southern Italy. The Government Printing Offices being still in the hands of the Germans, Badoglio took his problems to the printing firm of Richter, in Naples.

Richter, in Naples.

Richter, had, some years before, had a contract with the Argentine Government. The firm seems to have had no crown-watermarked paper on hand (or, if it had, was worried about the political propriety of using it), but it did have a stock of paper left over from the early days, imprinted with the familiar Argentine honeycomb.

This paper Richter used, together with a supplementary unwatermarked stock, to create the "Wolves of Bari", and so it happened, for the first and last time in philatelic history, that an Italian stamp appeared with "that strange device"—an Argentine honeycomb!

The banknote background "took" a little bit better on the unwatermarked stamp, but otherwise the two items are identical. The denomination used—50 centesimi—was the post-card rate, since open postcards were about the only thing that had AMG sanction in the early days of Allied occupation.

might be reasonably permanent.

The issue remained in use until about August of 1944, when Badoglio and his government were permitted to return to Rome from Bari.

But—and here is the part of the story that few collectors

But—and here is the part of the story that few collectors know—there is a design prior to the "Wolf of Bari" that never saw the legitimate light of day!

Badoglio was no democrat—he was, in fact, a very-much-died-in-the-wool Monarchist, with strong authoritarian leanings. The design that Richter first executed, therefore, had no Roman Wolf on it—it bore, instead, a simple signature in slashing script—"Badoglio"!

The Allied Military Government immediately vetoed the project, and ordered to the Badoglio stamps destroyed. Nonetheless, a few managed to elude the eyes of the AMG and still exist, as follows:—

BY CARL P. RUETH

A good point has been brought up by Norma A. Kirkendall of Columbus, Ohio. She wants to know an easy, economical way of sending funds to the postmaster of a first day city to pay for the stamps to be placed on her cov-ers. With the passing of the Post-al Note March 31, purchasable at 8c each, a rather safe and cheap way of sending the money is eliminated.

To begin with there remains the Money Order of the Post Office which is rather expensive, costing 10c for sums up to $5, and 15c from $5.01 to $10.
Then there are Bank Money Orders which are cheaper, and sold by most banks throughout the retion Alex oscilious checks.

the nation. Also cashiers checks which might cost nothing at all if you are a good customer of the bank of the time.

While the post office frowns on While the post office from son the sending of money by Bank Money Order, or cashier check, I believe that such will be accepted without too much fuss.

I'm one of the trusting kind—send the dough in the envelope along with the covers to be serve-along with the covers to be serviced. Never have been disappointed yet.

1. On what commem is the ship "New Netherland" pictured?
2. Mt. Rockwell and Two Medicine Lake are pictured on what stamp?

The proper mounting of stamps is always an interesting sub-ject for all of us dream of hav-ing a collection which will bring the ohhhs and ahhhhs of our fel-low collectors, and catch the eye of the stamp show judges when it comes time to decide the trophy winners.
Collections which are consistent winning entries.

Is it because the judges are prejudiced against printed pages, and wouldn't give them attention regardless of the type material which is mounted on them? I am sure that is not the case.

The printed pages eliminate.

The printed pages eliminate themselves, and this is how that happens.

Say for instance the 100 points for each exhibit at the disposal of the judges is to go—

ity. That makes a total of 40 points for the exhibit on the printed pages.

Now in any exhibition worthy of the name. ou are going to have to score at least 90 or above to have a chance at a trophy, or above 80 to even win a third place ribbon.

So you see what I mean when say the printed pages eliminate themselves.

It might also be well at this time to point out that the bulk of the points are given for evidences hard work and study-hours with the reference books, in correspondence, and clear thinking all reflected in the write-up. in cor-all reflected in the write-up.

Likewise good taste in mounting wins a lot of points. That doesn't mean that you have to have a lot of clever thingamajigs in several colors decorating your pages—or lots of pictures—or your stamps arranged in the form of a leaping kangaroo if you are displaying animal issues.

It means a grouping of your

It means a grouping of your stamps so that the beholder's eye is drawn to the stamps alone. And the best way to do this is to keep the page plan simple as possible. If you like to do a lot of decorating of your pages for your own.

If you like to do a lot of decorating of your pages for your own pleasure go right ahead and have a lot of fun that way. But don't do it if you think it will help impress a stamp show judge in your favor. The usual comment among themselves is, "That guy sure wasted a lot of time and ink lousing up that nice bunch of stamps."

The folks down in Virginia think a lot of their last surviving veteran of the Civil War. He is John Salling who at 16 had a veteran of the Civil War. He is John Salling who at 16 had a very unglamorous job as a Confederate soldier.

Mr. Salling who now lives at Slant, Va. expects to celebrate his 104th birthday on May 15 and then go on to the final reunion of the UCV at Norfolk, Va. from May 30 to June 3.

Salling's first job was digging for saltpeter from which powder was made. It was backbreaking for it required that he dig under houses, in caves and other places difficult of access.

After hostilities he took over some land for farming and logging doing fairly well at it. Salling's most fun came when he borrowed a 100 gallon still from a neighbor, and in which he claims he "made a sight of brandy."

Sallings recipe to be a successful moonshiner is to first make friends with the revenuers, and then secondly, use top grade materials in clean and sanitary surroundings.

Salling was the father of seven terials in clean and sanitary sur-roundings.

Salling was the father of seven children, three of whom are still living. He married a Stoney Creek girl, Mary Flanary, whom he has now survived by eleven

He still likes a nip now and again—it seems to do things for him. According to his daughter Nancy Thompson, "when he gets a spoonful of likker in 'im, he's equal to a Holston preacher."

Wonder how long it will be be-fore the postage meters take over from postage meters take over from postage stamps. In most of the larger post offices today where meters have been used, half of the postage has been spent for meter impressions and strips. Of course most of this has been at the parcel post windows, but even so, this reduces the number of high denomination used stamps or high denomination used stamps considerably.

As an example of the meter encroachment, J. F. FcGee of Omaha, Nebr. cites the receipts from the meters and from the stamps in the local office.

For March the return from me-stamps in the local office.

For March the return from metered mail was $253,713.31. Sale of postage stamps amounted to $267,810.14. So you see the meters supply nearly half the total money spent for postage.
It could be that some of you "U. S. Specialists" are going to have to investigate the possibilities of the foreign stamps if you are going to remain in the hobare going to remain in the hob-by. I can hardly conceive of most of the foreign nations eliminating their postage stamps. These have been one of their most profitable exports.

Monaco International Exhibition April 1952

REINATEX, in other words, "Queen of Exhibitions," is the word coined for the International stamp exhibition scheduled for April 1952 at Monte Carlo in the Principality of Monaco.

So anxious are the Monaco authorities to make this one of the outstanding exhibitions of all outstanding exhibitions of all time that they have budgeted a sum of twenty million francs for it. If the original plans are fol-lowed there will be no entrance fee for exhibits, no admission fee to the exhibition hall, and no to the exhibition hall, and no special stamp to mark the occaspecial stamp to mark the occasion.

At least, state the executive committee, no stamp will need be purchased to enter the show.

Leon Boscus, who organized the Centenary Exhibition in Paris in 1949, will assume a similar post for the Monaco affair.

As a splendid inducement to attract the world's best collections, a solid gold "Oscar of Philately" said to have a worth of approximately $2800.00 will be the grand award. There are to be other silver and bronze awards for other winners.

Mr. F. C. Herbert of Badin, No. Car. has one of the old time psuedo-precancels. Here is what psuedo-precancels. Here is what the catalog says about the stamp. This note is after Type 13 of Springfield, Mass. in Hoover old Part One catalog. "A fake exists resembling U-9 between very thin double lines. Above and be-low the imprint is an inscription 'Not a precancelled'". From the very wording it's hard

From the very wording it's hard to see just how the stamp could be called a fake precancel because be called a fake precancel because the inscription itself on the stamp says it's not a precancel. The wording might be a little peculiar though. And there isn't anything else that it could be made to resemble if it is not a precancel. There must be a story behind the stamp which we are going to try to bring to LINN'S precancel readers. So we think that the title of NOVELTY would fit the stamp better.

Foundation Approves Colombian Invert

By George W. Linn

Orville A. Lee of Indianapolis, Ind., advises that the Philatelic Foundation has issued a Certifi-cate of Genuineness for a copy he has of Colombian Republic, Scott #527 with inverted overprint. In rendering its opinion the Com-mittee stated that in its opinion the stamp is regummed.

The stamp in question came from a full sheet of 100, and we happen to have the story although we have not kept track of the names of the parties involved

About November 1946 the writer had a letter from a man in the northwest offering a sheet of 100 of these stamps with I believe one copy removed from the sheet. At the same time the offer also included a cover which contained the single missing copy used on

At the same time the offer also included a cover which contained the single missing copy used on the cover. The cover was mailed from Bogota, Colombia on March 28, 1946, is backstamped at Miami. Florida on March 30, and then contains two New York City backstamps, one of March 30 and the other of April 1, 1946.

On the face of the cover I note the following stamps. A block of six of No. 527 with normal surcharge; a single copy of No. 527 with invert surcharge. This is the missing copy from the full sheet. Also on the cover are the following Colombia stamps; single copies of numbers 488, 509, C41 and C49 and a pair of RA19. Making postage of 1 Peso and 30 Centavos plus the extra ½ centavo Tax stamps.

It is a registered cover addressed to New York City and when it came it contained the sheet of invert stamps with one stamp missing.

These stamps as originally missing.

These stamps as missing.

These stamps as originally printed were a locally lithographed job. The gumming was done locally and is perhaps a crude bit of work. It would appear since the overprinting was also a local job to meet a quick need for a 1c stamp, that this sheet must have been printed inverted at the local plant and taken

You can tell when your subscription will expire by watching the number on the right of the date line on page one. This is the Whole Number and is changed each week. When the Whole Number is the same as the number after your name and address on the paper you have received the tast copy of your current subscription. from the plant and rushed out of the country immediately. With this belief, which is perfectly logthis belief, which is perfectly logical and probably an inside job at the local printing plant, it would seem evident that any question of the genuineness of this sheet or of the copy on cover would be ridiculous as the overprint on both the normal stamp, on the sheet and on the invert on cover, are identical to the most minute detail.

It is all just one of those things on cover, are identical to the most minute detail.

It is all just one of those things where a sheet was perhaps slipped through in the printing plant and got out of the country in a hurry. In fact as quickly as the first original stamps were got out and is therefore unquestionably a genuine error.

Thus far, Scott has stood on their rights and have refused to list the invert because they state that counterfeits are being circulated.

that counterfeits are being circulated.

We have not seen any of the counterfeits and question if Scott has made anything like a thorough study of this stamp. As for the remark by the Foundation that they consider the stamps submitted to them as being regummed, we doubt this since as we have pointed out the original gumning on these stamps was crude to say the least and is perhaps about as good a job as the Colombian printer could do. Back in 1946 I had the sheet in my possession and sold several

Back in 1946 I had the sheet in my possession and sold several of the stamps for the owner. At this same time I bought for my-self, the cover which I have described, The remainder of this sheet is now in the hands of Or-ville A. Lee of Indianapolis who has just reported that a copy of a stamp from the sheet has been approved by the Philatelic Foundation.

I do not know just how many copies of this stamp remain in the hands of Mr. Lee, but originally there were but 100 unused copies of this stamp in existence and but the single used copy on cover.

LINN PHILATELIC PRODUCTS Changes In Prices

Due to increased labor cost plus cost of paper our prices on most of our supplies are cancelled and the new prices listed beliew are in effect beginning April 1, 1951. In making these changes we have attempted to retain our basic prices and to make the necessary adjustment, have changed the contents of the various parcels to a lesser number of pages, thus attaining the necessary result.

Instead of prices now in our price list or printed on the face of our various packages, the schedule below is in effect. A Complete new price list is being prepared and will be issued as soon as it is printed.

BRITISH EMPIRE CHATTER

by HENRY M. FRIEDMAN Box 21, Planetarium Sta. New York 24, N. Y.

BURMA, The stamp to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the first postage stamp (#34) is a scarcer item than the catalogue price of $2.00 would indi-cate and is a good buy under $1.00. This stamp is in demand by collectors, especially those making centenary collections, Various countries have recently issued 100th anniversary stamps and the collection of these is be-

and the collection of these is becoming popular.

WAR TAX. During World War I, many of the British Territories issued special "War Tax" stamps which for many years were not in demand by collectors with the result that catalogue prices remained low and at this time, the majority are listed at low prices, mostly 10c or lower.

However, at recent exhibitions, war tax collections were shown and there is now an increased demand for these items, which enable a collector to form a specialized collection at small cost. If this demand continues, it can

If this demand continues, it can be expected that these stamps will increase in cost and catalogue value.
SOMALILAND Prot. The regular series overprinted in the new decimal currency has been re-leased and is now available here. There are 10 values from 5c to 5 shillings and the regular issue has been withdrawn from sale.

SINGAPORE. Forgeries exist of both the 50c and the $2.00 value.

ue and many exist on covers, having been postally used. The 50c value was made from genuine 1c stamps from which genuine 1c stamps from which the value was removed and the new value printed after the paper had been dyed to proper color. Having the genuine design and watermark, these forgeries required close examination to disover what they were,

AUSTRALIA. The issue to commemorate Australia's participation in World War II (No. 184/187) is scarce and advancing in price. The total numbers issued were 1d—61,244,000, 2d—85,782,800, 3d—3,078,240, and the 6d only 1,808,-

The 1937 commemorative set (150th Anniversary of New South Wales) #163/165 is decidedly underpriced, as the total number of the 9d issued was only 521,000, so that only this number of complete sets can possibly exist.

complete sets can possibly exist. The two other values were issued in larger numbers—the 2d—71,-668,000 and the 3d—2,454,000.

BARBADOS. The 1938 one penny Red (#194) has been issued in various perforations, and Scott prices this stamp at 40c regardless of perforations.

The English catalogues price various perforation varieties as follows.

Perf.14 13½x13 13¾x14

Commonwealth 3/6 75/ 40/
There is a large demand in England for all perforation varieties, some of which are quite Postkarte Zurück aber nicht unistischer Diktatur! ANTI-COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA. Germany with its government and allegiances divided today among the western allies and the communists is a fertile field for all kinds of propaganda for and against communism. As for instance this postal card from the Eastern Zone with a 12pfg imprinted stamp of the Pieck series. It bears on the left a picture of the Wartburg under which has been printed the caption, "Die Wartburg, wo Luther die enheitliche deutsche Schriftsprache schuf, mahnt zur Einheit Deutschlands". (The Wartburg, where Luther created the unified German written language, admonishes to the unity of Germany). Under this a counter piece of anti-communist propaganda has been stamped in red ink, "aber nicht unter kommunistischer Diktatur!" (but not under communistic ditatorship). The above is shown through the courtesy of Ernest Rietschel of Shelton, Conn.
